Our selection of sightseeing routes in Luberon

Your visits by foot in Luberon

- Tour all the other majestuous medieval villages around, starting with Oppède-le-Vieux, Ménerbes, then Lacoste and Bonnieux.
- You might prefer the other edge of the Luberon with One of the Most Beautiful Village of France, Gordes, the abbey of Sénanque, Roussillon and the ocher trail or the Colorado Provençal in Rustrel.
- Or even the other side of the Petit Luberon, driving through the combe de Lourmarin, visit Lourmarin, Lauris, Ansouis or Cucuron.
- An impressive walk surrounded by huge cedar trees in the forêt de cèdres and the Enclos des Bories above Bonnieux (make sure the mountain is fire safe and open).
- Youngers will love canoying the Sorgue river starting from Fontaine de Vaucluse or visiting the Mines de Bruoux in Gargas.

Le Mazet du Domaine

Hiking or biking around

- The Gorges du Régalon : visiting narrow canyon from bottom
- The cliff in Buoux, also known for climbing
- The Colorado Provençal in Rustrel : colourful ocher landscape
- The Mur de la Peste in Cabrières d'Avignon : historical vista point
- The Gorges de Véroncle : canyon trail
- The Gorges d'Oppédette : visiting canyon from top

- The bike tour of Luberon goes through Oppède and following small desert roads to Ménerbes, Lacoste, Bonnieux,…
- The Véloroute du Calavon goes from Coustellet to Apt and even Manosque if you wish.
- The road of Castles on the south side of Luberon
- The roads of Lavander
- And for the « addicts » you might still go up the Mont Ventoux or the montagne de Lure, only 75km away.
