Our selection of sightseeing routes in Luberon

Le Mas des Lônes
Chambres d'hôtes de caractère

Your visits by foot in Luberon

- One of our favorite walking visits is hiking to the village of Oppède-le-Vieux, about 45 minutes by the vineyard trail.
- Also tour all the other majestic medieval villages around, starting with Ménerbes, then Lacoste and Bonnieux.
- You might prefer the other edge of the Luberon with One of the Most Beautiful Village of France, Gordes, the abbey of Sénanque, Roussillon and the ocher trail or the Colorado Provençal in Rustrel.
- Or even the other side of the Petit Luberon, driving through the combe de Lourmarin, visit Lourmarin, Lauris, Ansouis or Cucuron.
- An impressive walk surrounded by huge cedar trees in the forêt de cèdres and the Enclos des Bories above Bonnieux (make sure the mountain is fire safe and open).
- Youngers will love canoying the Sorgue river starting from Fontaine de Vaucluse or visiting the Mines de Bruoux in Gargas.

Chambres d'hôtes de caractère

Hiking or biking around

- The Gorges du Régalon : visiting narrow canyon from bottom
- The cliff in Buoux, also known for climbing
- The Colorado Provençal in Rustrel : colourful ocher landscape
- The Mur de la Peste in Cabrières d'Avignon : historical vista point
- The Gorges de Véroncle : canyon trail
- The Gorges d'Oppédette : visiting canyon from top
-/....

- The bike tour of Luberon goes through Oppède and following small desert roads to Ménerbes, Lacoste, Bonnieux,...
- The Véloroute du Calavon goes from Coustellet to Apt and even Manosque if you wish.
- The road of Castles on the south side of Luberon
- The roads of Lavander
- And for the « addicts » you might still go up the Mont Ventoux or the montagne de Lure, only 75km away.

Our recommendations in the area

- Wine tasting properties :
 - Domaine de la Citadelle in Ménerbes
 - Domaine de la Garelle in Oppède
 - Cave de Lumières in Lumières, a superb rosé
 - Maison de la Truffe et du Vin in Ménerbes
 - Domaine de la Verrerie in Puget
 - Don't forget we are not far from the Cotes du Rhône « grands crus » : Châteauneuf du Pape, Gigondas, Vacqueyras...

- Olive oil production mill : Moulin St Augustin or Clos des Jeannons in Gordes
- Les Délices du Luberon in L'Isle sur la Sorgue : tapenades, olives...
- Kayak Vert or Canoe Evasions to rent kayaks in Fontaine de Vaucluse
- In Lumières, the Edith Mezard's maison : clothing and objects

- Of course delicious fruit, vegetables and local products in our Provence markets

Our favourites all year round

- Explore galleries of antiques in Isle sur la Sorgue along the river.
- Don't miss for any reason the fabulous wall projections in the stone caves of Carrières de Lumières des Baux de Provence (in 2016 Chagall, in 2017 Bosch-Brueghel-Arcimboldo, 2018 Picasso, 2019 Van Gogh , 2021 Cezanne).
- Visit Avignon and the Popes' Palace or even better go to the other side and discover the not so well known Villeneuve lès Avignon, a flea market every saturday morning.
- For the contemporary art lovers, the Château La Coste in Puy Ste Réparate will delight you, the Collection Lambert in Avignon, the Villa Datriis for its contemporary sculpture exhibition or the Musée Campredon in Isle sur la Sorgue and the Blachère Fondation in Apt with an african contemporary art exhibition.
- Do not forget the Musée de la Lavande in Coustellet, the Village des Bories in Gordes or the Abbey of Sénanque.

Farther away in Provence
